

PraGeo - Jubilejní synagoga / Jubilee Synagogue

GC1JZKD

How to do it?

On the left of the entrance is placed a commemorative plaque exposure synagogue. The plate count the number of letters (A) and number of lines of text (B).

(C) = digit sum A + 1

Box can be found at coordinates

N 50° 05.(starting coordinates + C + 17)

E 014° 25.(starting coordinates - (A+B) + 15)

HINT: Gutter at the corner

Jubilejní synagoga / Jubilee Synagogue

Jubilee Synagogue is youngest, dating from 1906, largest and most vibrant synagogue in Prague. Designed by Wilhelm Stiassny, and named in honor of the 50th anniversary celebration, or the silver jubilee, of the reign of Emperor Franz Josef I of Austria, the Jubilee Synagogue is a colorful mixture of Moorish revival design and Art Nouveau decor.

The facade features ornate keyhole arches, a rose window, lovely Iberian red and white layers of stone, and colors galore, the synagogue stands alone on Jerusalem Sreet. The interior is a whimsical blend of Moorish elements with intricately painted Art Nouveau detailing. The Synagogue has 850 seats and a private upper balcony for women.

